1. (2 pts) ________________ is the binding together of data and the code which operates on the data.

2. (2 pts) The ________________ in a class definition has the same name as the class.

3. (2 pts) The distinguishing feature of class variables and methods is that they have the keyword ________________ in their declaration.

4. (2 pts) True/False ________________ It is possible to have two methods in the same class definition with the same name. If false, explain.

5. (2 pts) True/False ________________ All entities in Java are objects. If false, explain.